Foreword

Although a yearbook can attempt to capture the multi-faceted pleasures of four years, it does not seek to accomplish the impossible. The staff realizes that to undertake the whole forest would be to sacrifice several of the most special trees. We realize the importance of these smaller trees, and have, therefore, dedicated our efforts to finding them and making this book a showcase of their precious fruits. Then, if in future years, these sparse pages can unfold at least one memory, or can preserve at least one moment, or can recall at least one ounce of joy, our ends will have been accomplished for these trees will have bloomed into a magical forest.

Dedication

The members of the staff of this yearbook feel that there are two people who have been extremely important to the Class of 1968. Their influence upon the class both collectively and individually has been extensive. They, more than anyone else, have helped us through many trying incidents, have inspired our successful and nearly-successful Class Plays and Winter Carnival Snow Sculptures, have organized and supervised class trips and dances, and have remained patient, concerned, and instructive throughout the past four years.

Michael Kane

Frederic Warman

These two are our class advisers, Mr. Kane and Mr. Warman. In recognition of the efforts which they have expended on behalf of this Senior Class, we wish this yearbook to be dedicated to them.

"A teacher never knows how far his influence may reach." In the case of these two particular instructors, we are certain that we will be conscious of their influences for many years to come.

Winter Carnival

The second Annual Winter Carnival, sponsored by the Student Council, was held from Wednesday, January 31 to Saturday, February 3. The first event was the election of the court. Then the students voted for a king and queen. A Talent Show was held Thursday. The winners for the Junior High division were the Blue Power. Proudly holding their trophy are: W. Partelo, R. Vaught, J. Leonard, R. Baer, and G. Peacor. The winner for the Senior High was R. Wood. During the week, snow sculptures were constructed. The Class of '68 won the contest for the second year in a row. A pep rally for that evening's basketball game between Palmer and Monson was held on Friday. Shown awarding an honorary season pass to Monson's most faithful game attendant, Henry Cady, is Student Council President Dennis Haley. On Saturday a Winter Carnival Ball was held, during which the king and queen, Robert Darling and Colleen Lynch, were crowned.

Junior Prom

The theme of our Junior Prom was "Violets of Dawn." Held on April 14, 1967, it was of special significance to us, as the last dance in the old high school. The above pictures show preparation for the event. In the pictures below, the queen, Debbie Gola, her court, and their escorts are shown.

The Junior Prom court was: Marjorie Brown, Janice Chaples, Dorothy Donovan, Evangeline Lapinski, Colleen Lynch, and Ruth Snelgrove.

Senior Reception . . .

The . . .

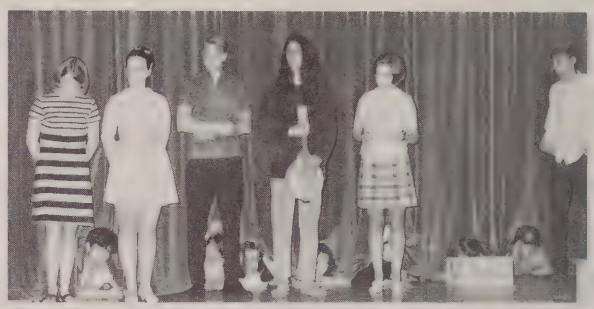
. . . Last . . .

. . . Evening.

The senior reception, sponsored by the Freshman Class, was "The Mad Hatter's Tea Party." The White Rabbit, the Dormouse, the Red Queen, Alice, and the Mad Hatter himself frolicked on the walls of the high school cafeteria in scenes from ALICE IN WONDERLAND. Occupying the center of the dance floor were the servants of the Red Queen, dutifully painting her roses red. The band was "Fat", and iced tea and tarts were served.

Class Night . . .

Wacky . . .



. . . And . . .

. . . Wonderful.

The theme of class night, 1968, was "Laugh-Out." The seniors proceeded to amuse and confuse the rest of the school, and their parents, as a grand finale to a most amusing and confusing year.

After the delightfully nonsensical "Laugh-Out," awards were presented. John Malo was presented with the Norman Wytas Athletic Award; Denise Gaudette received the Diane McKenna Athletic Award; Jacqueline Griswold received the Sadie A. Quinn Scholarship. Dennis Haley was the recipient of the Cecil Alden Rindge Award, which is annually presented to the graduating class' most outstanding scholar, leader, and gentleman. Other award winners were Deborah Gola and Dorothy Donovan, who received four awards each, Joanne Loura, Joanne Sorreiro, Eric Sanderson, Gene Corbett, John Misiaszek, Nancy Nasiatka, Janice Chaples, Colleen Lynch, and Ann Brothers.

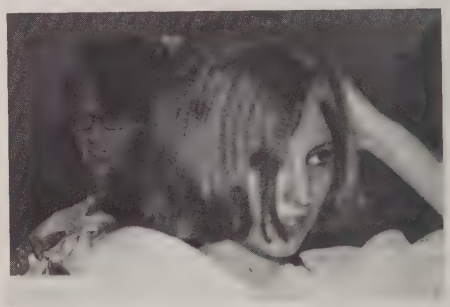
Graduation

It Was The Best Of Times . . .

. . . It Was The Worst Of Times . . .



. . . it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of light, it was the season of darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair, we had everything before us, we had nothing before us.

. . . Charles Dickens
